One-to-One Support

Our Social Anxiety Support is for young people aged 8 to 17 years and is delivered as one-to-one behaviour support or family support sessions.

Social Anxiety One-to-One Support

The one-to-one support service gives young people the freedom and safety to explore issues that affect them on a more personal level. After an initial assessment has been made, regular one-to-one support sessions will take place. We charge £40 per session for this behavioural support and all our meetings take place at the North Cray Neighbourhood Centre which is neutral ground for most families.

Social Anxiety Family Support Sessions

The family support sessions give families the space and opportunity to discuss and resolve social anxiety issues affecting them in a non-judgemental environment. Together families can work towards finding common ground and develop strategies to reduce family conflicts. We charge £40 per session for this behavioural support and all our meetings take place at the North Cray Neighbourhood Centre which is neutral ground for most families.

Behavioural Support Service

Being a young person in today's world is challenging and here at YADT, we understand that some young people need a little extra support to help them get a positive start in life or overcome obstacles along the way. We aim to help young people with the issues that affect them. These can be a number of issues such as understanding and coping with ADHD and Autistic behaviours, social anxiety, improving confidence, enhancing communication and dealing with stress and loss. The Behavioural Support Service can be delivered as one-to-one behaviour support or as family sessions.
